Transport

We are on the way with 9-seater buses.

Eat and drink

There are several restaurants in the vicinity of our hotel. Under the day you find on some stages kiosk for food and drink, resp. we try, if the schedule allows, to make a stop at a restaurant or supermarket. But for safety's sake, it's always better to have a backpack with drinks and snacks with you. Some of our guests also have small folding camping chairs with them.

We have rally fans from all over the world with us, mostly from Sweden, Austria, Norway, France, and Germany. Our tour guide is in Swedish, German, English and French.

Our guides are all infected with the virus "rally" and each operate in different positions in rally events and therefore are also qualified to answer your questions.

Our regular crew are Per Carlsson and Claudia Bidlas which are all trips as well. With demand they are supported by Miriam Waldfridsson, Hermes Marc, Mattias Adielsson and Roger Turesson.

Our service offers, during the rally the start list, restart lists and lists of results as well as the stage times and the latest news also with our Rallytravels app.
